GOODRICH BOUSH.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber in Stafford, near Boyd's Hole, on Monday the 23d of July, a Mulatto ſervant man named FREDERICK M'CARLAN, about 23 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches high, a likely well made fellow; had on a green plains jacket without ſleeves, oſnabrig ſhirt, and ſhort breeches. On the day he went away he broke open one of my negro quarters, and ſtole the following cloths, viz. a white cloth coat, a pair of black knit breeches, a pair of black worſted ſtockings, and a pair of white thread ones, two pair of ſilver buckles, one pair of which had ſilver tongues and anchors, one pair of pumps, a fine new hat, two new brown ſhirts, and one white one. I have been lately informed that a perſon anſwering his deſcription, applied to one Lyburn a ſkipper of a ſloop that lay at Port Royal, to get employment on board; but the ſaid Lyburn, being apprehenſive he might not be free, would not employ him, and that he ſaw him a few days afterwards, on board a veſſel loading with ſalt (from on board the ſhip Falmouth) and bound to Nanſemond. I do hereby promiſe a reward of THREE POUNDS, beſides what the law allows, to any perſon that will deliver him to me.

JOHN STUART.

To Lord NORTH.

MY LORD,

MR. Luttrell's ſervices were the chief ſupport and ornament of the Duke of Grafton's adminiſtration. The honour of rewarding them was reſerved for your Lordſhip. The Duke, it ſeems, had contracted an obligation he was aſhamed to acknowledge, and unable to acquit. You, my Lord, had no ſcruples. You accepted of the ſucceſſion with all its incumbrances, and have paid Mr. Luttrell his legacy, at the hazard of ruining the eſtate.

When this accompliſhed youth declared himſelf the champion of government, the world was buſy in enquiring what honours or emoluments could be a ſufficient recompence to a young man of his rank and fortune, for ſubmitting to mark his entrance into life with the univerſal contempt and deteſtation of his country. His noble father had not been ſo precipitate. To vacate his ſeat in Parliament;—to intrude upon a county in which he had no intereſt or connexion;—to poſſeſs himſelf of another man's right, and to maintain it in defiance of public ſhame as well as juſtice, beſpoke a degree of zeal or of depravity, which all the favour of a pious Prince could hardly require.

The Duke of Grafton, with every poſſible diſpoſition to patronize this kind of merit, was contented with pronouncing Colonel Luttrell's panegyric. The gallant ſpirit, the diſintereſted zeal of the young adventurer, were ecchoed through the Houſe of Lords. His Grace repeatedly pledged himſelf to the Houſe, as an evidence of the purity of his friend Mr. Luttrell's intentions;—that he had engaged without any proſpect of perſonal benefit, and that the idea of compenſation would mortally offend him. The noble Duke could hardly be in earneſt, but he had lately quitted his employment, and began to think it neceſſary to take ſome care of his reputation. At that very moment the Iriſh negotiation was probably begun.—Come forward, thou worthy repreſentative of Lord Bute, and tell this inſulted country who adviſed the King to appoint Mr. Luttrell Adjutant General to the army in Ireland. By what management was Colonel Cunninghame prevailed on to reſign his employment, and the obſequious Giſborne to accept of a penſion for the government of Kinſale? * Was it an original ſtipulation with the Princeſs of Wales, or does he owe his preferment to your Lordſhip's partiality, or to the Duke of Bedford's friendſhip? My Lord, though it may not be poſſible to trace this meaſure to its ſource, we can follow the ſtream, and warn the country of its approaching deſtruction. The Engliſh nation muſt be rouſed and put upon its guard. Mr. Luttrell has already ſhewn us how far he may be truſted, whenever an open attack is to be made upon the liberties of this country. I do not doubt that there is a deliberate plan formed.—Your Lordſhip beſt knows by whom;—the condition of the legiſlative body on this ſide—a military force on the other—and then farewell to England! It is impoſſible that any Miniſter ſhould dare to adviſe the King to place ſuch a man as Luttrell in the confidential poſt of Adjutant General, if there were not ſome ſecret purpoſe in view, which only ſuch a man as Luttrell is fit to promote. The inſult offered to the army in general is as groſs as the outrage intended to the people of England. What! Lieutenant Colonel Luttrell to be Adjutant General of an army of ſixteen thouſand men! One would think his Majeſty's campaigns at Blackheath and Wimbledon might have taught him better.—I cannot help wiſhing General Hervey joy of a colleague, who does ſo much honour to the employment.—But, my Lord, this meaſure is too daring to paſs unnoticed, too dangerous to be received with indifference or ſubmiſſion. You ſhall not have time to new model the Iriſh army. They will not ſubmit to be garbled by Colonel Luttrell. As a miſchief to the Engliſh conſtitution (for he is not worth the name of enemy) they already deteſt him. As a boy, impudently thruſt over their heads, they will receive him with indignation and contempt. As for you, my Lord, who perhaps are no more than the blind unhappy inſtrument of Lord Bute and her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, be aſſured that you ſhall be called upon to anſwer for the advice which has been given, and either diſcover your accomplices, or fall a ſacrifice to their ſecurity.

JUNIUS.

* This infamous tranſaction ought to be explained to the public. Colonel Giſborne was Quarter Maſter General in Ireland. Lord Townſhend perſuades him to reſign to a Scotch officer, one Fraſer, and gives him the government of Kinſale. Colonel Cunninghame was Adjutant General in Ireland. Lord Townſhend offers him a penſion to induce him to reſign to Luttrell. Cunninghame treats the offer with contempt. What's to be done? Poor Giſborne muſt move once more. He accepts of a penſion of 500 l. a year, until a government of greater value ſhall become vacant. Colonel Cunninghame is made Governor of Kinſale, and Luttrell, at laſt, for whom the whole machinery is put in motion, becomes Adjutant General, and in effect takes the command of the army in Ireland.

VIENNA, Auguſt 8.

IN conſequence of certain advices received from Tranſilvania, that the plague rages in Moldavia, all the poſts on the line of our frontiers have been reinforced, and ſeveral houſes on the borders have been burnt, ſuſpected to be infected.

Letters from Conſtantinople mention a conſiderable engagement at ſea between the Turkiſh and Ruſſian fleets. It is affirmed that this combat was carried on with great ardour on both ſides, that the loſs of men was very conſiderable, and that both the Admirals being cloſely engaged, their reſpective ſhips took fire, and were blown up,

After this remarkable action, the date and exact circumſtances of which are not related, it is ſaid the Turkiſh fleet retired to Tenedos; but more private letters from the Porte confirm the news of the engagement, with the addition that the Ruſſians certainly gained the victory, becauſe on the arrival of the news the cannon were not fired at Conſtantinople.

LONDON, Auguſt 25.

WE are aſſured, by the maſter of a Dutch ſhip, which arrived within theſe few days at Hull, that he fell in, off the Scaw in the north ſea, on the 12th of this month, with a Ruſſian ſquadron of near 20 ſail. He ſent his boat on board the Commodore's ſhip, which mounted 60 guns, and found they were bound to the Levant, but intended firſt to touch at ſome port in England. Moſt of the veſſels were tranſports, and ſeemed filled with ſoldiers.

Lately died, aged about 90, in White-Hart yard, Drury Lane, Mr. Muzere, a great number of years an eminent piece-broker; a very induſtrious and penurious man, who never truſted any money out at intereſt, but put it into an iron cheſt, where was found in caſh, at his death, about 9000 l. He had two wives, but no children living at the time of his deceaſe. His ſecond wife died a few months ſince; upon which he got an acquaintance to go into the country with an offer of his perſon and fortune to an old woman of his acquaintance, but ſhe rejected the offer. How he bequeathed his money we have not learned.

Auguſt 28. Letters from France adviſe, that the public murmurings and diſcontents continually increaſe, that the attachment to the Crown diminiſhes, that the diſguſt to the adminiſtration ſpreads itſelf, and that the reverence for, and confidence in the Parliaments of the ſeveral provinces, augments in proportion among the people, who conſider them as the bulwark of their rights, and the ſource of their hopes of the reſtoration of their liberties.

Bets of 100 l. to 30 l. are laid, that the Spice Iſland of Ceylon will be in the hands of the Engliſh, before Chriſtmas 1771, unleſs a rupture ſhould happen between Great-Britain and the States General.

It is certain that a late Governor and fomenter of differences in America will be honoured with a ribband.

On the late examinations at Portſmouth, we are informed, the mariners appeared to have acted very well, in general; and that only one had been found faulty, who had been whipped and drummed out of the regiment ſome time ſince.

A regiment of troops is now filling up, and completing, in the province of Ulſter, in the North of Ireland, in order to be ſent off for America, with the greateſt expedition.

Yeſterday a number of ſailors, belonging to merchantmen in the river, refuſed to proceed on their reſpective voyages, without an advance of wages.

Laſt week a young Lady at Richmond, who was on the point of marriage, was ſeized with a malignant fever, which being attended with many dangerous ſymptoms, ſhe was given over by her phyſicians; and being extremely deſirous of ſeeing the Gentleman to whom ſhe was engaged, an expreſs was immediately ſent for him, and he came. But the cataſtrophe proved very unhappy, for he caught the diſorder, and died yeſterday; while ſhe, contrary to the expectation of every one, is in a fair way of recovery.

It is rumoured in the city that a large ſum of money has lately been remitted by government to a certain American colony.

TWENTY Gentlemen of the aſſociation having, by their letter of the 7th of this inſtant, deſired me to call a general meeting of the aſſociators on matters of importance, I do hereby requeſt the attendance of the aſſociators on Friday the 14th of December next, at the Capitol, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. PEYTON RANDOLPH, Moderator.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber the 19th of May laſt, a likely Virginia born Negro fellow named TOM, about 26 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, very well made, talks much, has a long viſage, with a down look, and was cloathed in the uſual Negro dreſs. He was formerly the property of one Tompkins of Glouceſter, and I am well informed he has been frequently ſeen lurking about the plantation of Mr. Hubard, near Poplar Spring church, in ſaid county, where he has a wife. Whoever will apprehend and ſecure him in the above county gaol, ſhall have FORTY SHILLINGS reward on notice given to

JAMES HENDERSON.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, ſome time in July laſt, two Negroes, who are huſband and wife, the fellow named TONY, about 50 years of age, the wench named PHILLIS, and is about 40. They are both of the middle ſize, he cloathed in old blue cotton, and ſhe in blue cotton and country cloth. The fellow formerly belonged to Capt. William Payne of Lancaſter county, who ſold him ſome years ago to one Thomas Chilton in Culpeper. The wench was alſo born in Lancaſter, and afterwards belonged to Chilton. They have had ſeveral children, who are ſold and diſperſed through Culpeper, Frederick, and Auguſta counties, to one of which, if they are not in Lancaſter, I ſuſpect they are gone, though I incline to think they are in the latter, as the fellow always expreſſed an uncommon deſire to return there. PHILIP WILLIAMS, ſen.

RUN away from the ſubſcriber, in Hanover, a very likely mulatto fellow named Chelter, about 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high, ſomething of a reddiſh complexion, full eyed, rather thin viſaged for ſo ſturdy a young fellow, his hair has the appearance of wool, which he commonly combed back, and was about three or four inches long. He carried with him an old brown broadcloth coat, a green jacket, three white ſhirts, two hats, and ſundry other clothes, very ſuitable for carrying on the cheat of a pretended freeman. It is probable he will change his name, and direct his courſe towards Tar River, in North-Carolina, as he had a wife, ſome time in April, ſent there. He rode away a very likely dark bay gelding 4 feet 7 inches high, with a hanging mane and ſwitch tail, ſeveral white ſpots on his rump, and ſome on his back, occaſioned by too conſtant uſe of the ſaddle. He has a brand on the left buttock hard to be diſcerned, and at firſt ſight appears like ⓓ. He paces but ſlow, trots very faſt, and gallops ſtrong. THE FORGE and MILL, together with the LAND, that was drawn a prize in Col. Bernard Moore's lottery, a deſcription of which we think unneceſſary, as it may be ſeen in that ſcheme: We have only to add that the forge and mill have been repaired this ſummer, are now at work and in good order, and makes as good iron as any forge on the continent. BOSWORTH, with the ſtock of cattle, horſes, hogs and ſheep. Alſo about three hundred pounds worth of genteel furniture. Any Gentleman inclinable to purchaſe is deſired to view the land and improvements, betwixt this and the 4th of December, at which time I ſhall be at Boſworth, and ſtay about a fortnight. Capt. Samuel Meredith or Mr. John Starke who live adjoining, will be ready at any time to ſhew the land. It was a myſtery to me till very lately why this place was not ſold before this time, but from ſeveral Gentlemen of undoubted veracity I have lately been informed that a perſon in the neighbourhood of Boſworth, has taken more than common pains to miſrepreſent this ſeat, &c. I refer Gentlemen to a former advertiſement in regard to the goodneſs of the land, houſes, &c. and when they have ſeen it, they will know what kind of perſon he muſt be, that ſo do me an injury, had meanly and privately told ſo many falſities to prevent my ſelling this place. Off this land at leaſt thirty pounds per tithable, one year with another, may be made. The land I ſome time ago ſold, belonging to this tract (which was falſely ſaid to be all the good land I held in Hanover) will be ſold with Boſworth. I have been very ungenteely treated by ſeveral perſons that have been long in my debt, and rather than diſappoint Gentlemen I am indebted to, I propoſe to ſell Boſworth for leſs than half the real value.

6 ANTHONY WINSTON.

N. B. If the above plantation and furniture is not diſpoſed of before the next Oyer court, I will then rent it. The renter may have the uſe of the furniture. I have a very good merchant mill, ſuitable for a merchant, which I will alſo rent at the ſame time.

WHEREAS Meſſ. Murdochs, Donalds, and Co. of Glaſgow, have diſcontinued their trade at this place; I hereby give notice to all thoſe who have open accounts on my books to come and ſettle them; and in order to prevent diſputes hereafter, bonds will be required for their reſpective balances, for which purpoſe I will attend regularly at this place during the enſuing winter and ſpring, unleſs when the General and Oyer courts, or any of the neighbouring county courts, intervene. As perſonal application to every one concerned cannot be made, therefore due regard it is hoped will be paid to this advertiſement. Thoſe who fail to ſettle in due time muſt blame themſelves for laying me under the neceſſity of bringing ſuits againſt them without farther notice; as thoſe who ſhow the greateſt readineſs to ſettle may expect the greateſt indulgence.

The GOODS on hand will be ſold by wholeſale, on very reaſonable terms, which may be known by applying to ARCHIBALD GOVAN.

HANOVER town, September 26, 1770.

WHEREAS Meſſ. MURDOCHS, DONALDS, and Company, of Glaſgow, have diſcontinued their trade at Hanover town, I hereby give notice to all thoſe who have open accounts on my books to come and ſettle their reſpective balances, for which purpoſe I will give conſtant attendance at this place during the enſuing winter and ſpring, the General and Oyer courts, and adjoining county court days excepted. To prevent future diſputes bonds will be demanded of all who are indebted to the ſtore, and ſatisfaction made to thoſe who have balances in their favour. As it is impoſſible for me to make perſonal application to every perſon with whom I have buſineſs, it is expected thoſe concerned will pay ſtrict regard to this advertiſement. Such as fail to make ſettlements in the time limited, may depend on their accounts being put into a lawyer's hands, without further notice, and muſt blame themſelves for being put to expence and trouble, which I would gladly avoid.

The HOUSES and LOTS in this place are to be diſpoſed of, and the GOODS on hand will be ſold in wholeſale on reaſonable terms, which may be known by applying to JOHN JOHNSON.

On Wedneſday the 21*ſt of* November next, will be SOLD at public auction, in LOTS, or the whole together, as may beſt ſuit the purchaſer,

A VALUABLE tract of LAND in Weſtmoreland county, containing 878 acres, by a late ſurvey, lying on Machodick river, where the greateſt quantity of the fineſt fiſh and oyſters may be got with convenience; and for a Gentleman engaged in the Weſt India trade, no place on Potowmack can anſwer his purpoſe better. The navigation is ſufficient for a veſſel of any burthen to go up into one of the beſt harbours on Potowmack river, the landings deep, and the neighbourhood produces conſiderable quantities of Indian corn and wheat; there are both apple and peach orchards on the land, with good ſprings, and convenient to church, court houſe, and ſeveral good mills; for the planter or farmer it is equally valuable, the land being ſufficiently timbered, with ſeveral good plantation houſes, and, through the whole, well adapted for tobacco, corn, and wheat, and at all times a ready and advantageous ſale for each commodity.

Any perſon that inclines to buy before the day of ſale, may know the terms by applying to me in Frederick county, or to Mr. John Auguſtine Waſhington in Weſtmoreland county, living near the land.

SAMUEL WASHINGTON.

FREDERICK, July 2, 1770.

THE ſubſcriber thinks proper to inform the public, that he purpoſes beginning to inoculate the SMALL-POX on the 12th day of September next, and to continue the ſame until July following, at his houſe, ſix miles from Wincheſter: The ſituation healthful and agreeable. The terms for each patient TWO PISTOLES for inoculation, and 20s. a week for board.

He flatters himſelf that his experience in Europe, and his repeated ſucceſs in inoculating in this county, will render any account of his being regularly qualified, unneceſſary. To theſe he chuſes to appeal, rather than ſpeak confidently of himſelf.

Patients may depend upon every neceſſary accommodation; likewiſe the greateſt care and tenderneſs; and need not be under any apprehenſion of confinement.

JOHN M'DONALD.

FOR SALE,

A PLANTATION, ſituated in Nanſemond county, 7 miles from Suffolk, and 27 from Norfolk; it contains 179 acres, one third of which is uncleared, and has on it a two ſtory brick houſe, with all convenient out houſes. Whoever will deliver them to me ſhall receive TWENTY SHILLINGS reward for each, beſides what the law allows. JOHN SMITH.

Maryland, Auguſt 15, 1770.

THE ſubſcriber, who has been regularly bred to the practice of PHYSIC and SURGERY, gives this public information that he begins to inoculate on the 5th of September, and continues till the laſt of June 1771, at his houſe which ſtands about half a mile from Baltimore Town, on a healthy ſituation, with a very agreeable proſpect. The price (as before) TWO PISTOLES, and twenty-five ſhillings per week for board. The ſickneſs is really trifling, and the confinement none. They may ſafely return to their homes in 21 days. Thoſe that chooſe to come, are requeſted not to alter their diet, and to give timely notice, that neceſſary care may be taken to prevent their being diſappointed. NEGROES will be inſured at five per cent. The ſubſcriber declares he has inoculated upwards of eight thouſand, and has loſt but ſeventeen, and they died more from obſtinacy and a too great indulgence, than from the ſmall-pox.
